Block Y Gets New Face Lift

Face-lifting on the sagging Y will be completed this week. Between two and three thousand dollars will be spent on repairs and built-in protection for the emblem.

EROSION, vehicle and foot traffic, and vandals have taken their toll on the Y. Part of the right prong of the letter sagged away last winter leaving the rest in danger if it were not repaired, according to Jay Eltner, assistant student coordinator.

The road up Y mountain will be closed, making it accessible to foot traffic only. The Y must also be whitewashed because of vandals attempts to convert it to a U.

Union Dispute Settled; Men Return to Jobs

by Tom Fensch—Universe Reporter

The three-day strike of the Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Iron Workers, which stopped work on two campus buildings, is over.

In an interview with union members back on the job Monday, the Daily Universe learned that the Iron Workers Union Local 27 asked for 25c an hour raise each year for a new two-year contract. Management offered the workers 15c an hour raise each year for a two and one-half year contract. Settlement was for 25c an hour raise the first year; 20c the second year and 10c for the worker's pension fund the third year.

AS WORKMEN returned to their jobs on the Fine Arts and Student Union Center it was not thought that the three day delay would set back the completion dates of either of the two bldgs. The Y Student Union Center is scheduled to be completed by April 6, 1964 and the Fine Arts Bldg is scheduled for sometime in the spring of 1964.

The Y Student Union Center, designed by Fred Markham, is being constructed by the Graff-Ryberg-Graff Construction Co. The 25,000 square feet will house many offices and recreational facilities said Lyle Curtis, Director of the Union Center. In addition to the offices of the student body officers, the building will house the student coordinator, student publications, Honor Council, Program Bureau, and Post Office.

THE BUILDING will also contain many recreational and other facilities for students. The top floor of the six story building will be the Sunset Room, a small dinner and dancing area. A large ballroom, to hold 5,000 has been planned. In addition there will be small meeting and banquet halls, a small theatre for movies and live productions, music listening rooms, a 20 lane bowling alley, cafeteria and snack bar, bank, barber shop and the BYU Bookstore.

The Franklin S. Harris Fine Arts Bldg. will provide office and classrooms for the departments of Speech, Art, Music and Dramatic Arts. The building contains 308 rooms or other facilities which will include offices, classrooms, rehearsal rooms, four theatres, recital halls and art galleries.

Family Living Center Blaze Causes $1,200 Fire Damages

An overheated transformer caused a $1,200 fire in the Smith Family Living Center Friday night.

Two duplicating machines and a bookshelf in the Office of Dean Virginia F. Coker, College of Family Living, were completely destroyed and there was extensive water and smoke damage, according to Capt. Sven Nielsen, of Security.

OCCURRING AT approximately 7:15 p.m., the fire was reported by a switchboard operator in the building. As she was calling to report it, two students saw the blaze. They broke the folding wood panels on the west side of the office to gain entrance and started to fight the blaze. They did this as Security Officers were unlocking the doors to get in. The Provo City Fire department was also called to fight the fire.

Understand, Participate in Govt.

The heritage that we share as Americans ideologically demands that we not only understand our government but also that when called upon we participate in it.

As college students we are striving to gain knowledge and wisdom to formulate a way of life. Our attitudes and habits are to be formed here. What we do as future citizens is determined by what we gain from this atmosphere of learning participating, experimenting. We are required to take classes in American Government and political science in order to become informed citizens.

IT SEEMS TO US that with all our training that we as citizens of the BYU student community fall far short of our goals and obligations when less than 50 percent of our numbers turn out to vote as in past student elections.

True the issues involved are minor. The duties of the elected president, vice president and secretary are fairly well conscribed already.

The point is that if we fail to be motivated by issues even if they are the activities we are to have for a summer session, then we are not likely to be motivated to awareness of local and national issues once we leave college.

As citizens we have two obligations then. First to become informed on platforms, and issues and then to vote intelligently.

Candidates Give Qualifications

Editorial notes: Dave Tynbald, election chairman, was told to inform each of the candidates that he must submit 150 words in any way they liked. The following information is reprinted as it was as handed in by the candidates at least as it doesn't count the words. Anything over this limit has been cut.

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE, Terrance Freely (classmate) of the BYU has been named to the real status of student president. He has been found to be a fair to serve somebody else in it to serve himself as well.

I am a member of the Beta Beta Beta (BBB) chapter of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. I am a member of the Beta Beta Beta (BBB) chapter of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

There are times when the interests of the students may conflict with those of the administration. In such cases, it is the duty of the student body to stand up for its rights. I will defend and support it. I will defend and support it. I will defend and support it.

If there are activities of which you would like to participate in, let me know. I will be glad to help you.

Did You Know? ...

Column Reveals Facts About Cuban Oppression

by Jim Seath
This column will be a regular feature of the summer editions of The Universe and will be dedicated to presenting important facts underlying the news.

Facts that we the public may not be aware of and yet facts that are of real importance; facts that should be brought to the surface! Here in America we enjoy freedom to think, speak, and act without fear of oppression by the Federal Government, even if our convictions are contrary to those of our leaders.

THIS, AS WE know is not the case in the Communist controlled countries of Europe and Asia. But the Communist threat is not restricted to Europe and Asia alone. This threat lies at our very door step.

Over 7,000 persons have been executed in Cuba under Castro's Communist regime and of this 7,000 there have been 4,215 executed without trial. Over 4,000 people have been shot down for thinking, speaking or acting contrary to the forces at power.

IT IS NO wonder that the people of Cuba are fleeing the country in large numbers. As in other Communist or free nations, there is an unrest that drives these people to escape their native land in search of freedom.

Since January of 1960, approximately 440,450 Cubans have left the island; this is more than 66 percent of the whole population. It is estimated that nearly 20 have perished trying to reach the U.S. The U.S. has proven to be a haven for 85,000 of these people; the rest have gone to other countries.

AT PRESENT there are about 30,000 persons in Cuba in possession of passports. There are 885,000 trying to fulfill the requirements for leaving the island. It is estimated that 16 percent of the Cuban population has been persecuted.

What drives these people from the island of their birth? Oppression! Fear of imprisonment! And there remains to fear. At present it is estimated that 81,000 or more Cubans are imprisoned.

To achieve the light the Cuban situation might be considered an official statement by Dr. Enrique Hurtado, President of the Cuban Medical Association.

"The supply of medicines received by the Cuban Government in exchange for the members of the 2506 Brigade has not reached the Cuban people, except for small amounts of anti-serum and aspirin that are sold to the public at very high prices. Reliable sources of medicines are being sent to the USSR by sea and air. . . the medicines obtained by the Cuban Communist Government exchange for the Bay of Pigs invaders will never be used to meet the necessities of the Cuban people, but instead to serve the interest of International Communism."

THIS IS AN insight into the situation that lies at the heart of the American future? How does it affect the American future? How does it affect the American future?

Campus and Comment Controversy

'Mischievous Culprits' Retaliates
Dear Editor:

I heard that Miss Sprouse's article was an ordinary "Californian Rejection," but in this case, I would call it an ordinary "Californian Injection!" I feel that Californians sometimes go a little bit too far.

The other day I was riding my bike and as usual was turning my light sprinklers on and off. Suddenly, I felt the whole campus shake. At first I thought, "What a light earthquake, but after I read Miss Sprouse's article, I found that the shaking was caused by the "water hammer" article.

GETTING sprayed with cool, nice water on a hot, sunny day is dangerous! In some cases, it may even lead to brain washing!

I bet Miss Sprouse has been sprayed a couple of times. For some time I thought that I was contributing a great deal to the beauty of the BYU campus by keeping the lawns green, but our campus "qualified advisor" comes along and refers to watering the lawns as "mischievous work!" If J.F.R., had some advisors like Miss Sprouse, with an attitude of an entire whole world would come under one flag and unity would encompass the globe.

I HOPE that the honor council does not find out about this "mischievous work" in which I am taking part, or else, I won't have a chance to graduate from BYU.

I was very impressed by Miss Sprouse's extensive vocabulary. I think she could shuffle among the seniors if she knew the meanings of the words she used. Keep smiling!

Sincerely,
Your excited Iranian friend
Farmanara Sami

Dr. Weldon J. Taylor Will Take Sabbatical Leave to the UAR

Dr. Weldon J. Taylor, dean of BYU College of Business, will depart on a sabbatical leave July 12 to be a consultant for the National Training and Management Development of the United Arab Republic.

Dr. Taylor was invited by the Ford Foundation to participate along with three other prominent business professors from the United States. He will be business consultant for the program.

Dr. Abdel Aziz El Sherbini of the United Arab Republic visited BYU last week and outlined Dr. Taylor's duties. He will work with special conferences for 36 weeks of the year's visit. Three of the conferences have been scheduled with top management officials of Egypt and will be held in Cairo.

A conference in Damascus will bring in top business personnel from Syria, Iraq, and Egypt in an attempt to develop common management views among the three countries now composing the United Arab Republic.

Dr. Taylor also will teach classes, gather case histories to be used for management studies, establish research programs, and consult with Egyptian industry.

NIMD was established jointly by the UAR and the Ford Foundation to train Egyptian leaders in the processes of American business methods.

"What interests me most," Dr. Taylor said, "is whether the adoption of American business methods can develop a climate in which free enterprise will be the system of government."

He will be situated in Maadi, a suburb of Cairo, and will be accompanied by his wife, Gayle, and his sons, Stephen D. and William D. Taylor.
